Spain - White

47. Bodegas Terras Gauda 'O Rosal' 2005/06 30.00
Mostly Albarino with a touch of Loureira and Caino Branco from Rias Baixas, a delicious wine with crystalline citrus flavours that remind you (me) of a summers day

Spain - Red

48. Artesano 2004 19.50
This is Priorato without the new mortgage, Grenache, Carignan, Syrah and Cabernet, manually harvested, vinified separately and then blended, red and black fruits greet the nose, a smooth palate with great acidity
49. Bodegas Urbina, Rioja Crianza 2001/02 22.00
Old-fashioned woody Rioja with enticing aromas of beeswax and damsons
50. Bodegas Urbina, Rioja Reserva 1997 34.00
The Reserva to accompany the crianza listed earlier – and extra year in oak and a further two years in bottle lend more complexity to the wine

Italy – White

51. Gianni Masciarelli Trebbiano d'Abruzzo 2006 19.50
A typically floral Trebbiano with gentle apple and almond fruit
52. Cantina Vadiaperti, Greco di Tufo 2005 24.50
Classic Greco with refined notes of ripe apples, fresh and structured with good balance and length

Italy - Red

53. Cantina Sociale Frentano, Montepulciano d'Abruzzo 2005 18.00
Bold Montepulciano with fruit as thundering as a church organ being pounded by an Orang-utan but nowhere near as vulgar. Plum skin fruit, leathery warmth and a chocolate finish
54. Cantine Vittorio Innocenti, Chianti dei Colli Senesi 2004 23.00
Mostly Sangiovese with a touch of Canaiolo Toscano this wine is a little better, a rustic uncompromising wine from a fantastic producer
55. Foradori, Teroldego Rotaliano 2004 30.50
Teroldego is an ancient Italian grape variety that is marked by purity, dignity and intense fruit soft and penetrating with great balancing acidity
56. Guiseppe Mascarello, Barolo 'Monprivato' 1999 80.00
100% Nebbiolo, a fleshy upfront bouquet of liquorice, tobacco, sweet cherries, melted asphalt and rose petals. Full bodied yet surprisingly soft palate with smooth tannins

New World - White

57. Crittenden at Dromana Sauvignon Semillon 2005 22.50
Created with premium parcels of fruit from the Mornington Peninsula, Victoria, a wine with great acidity from the sauvignon and balancing richness from the semillon
58. Framingham Estate Sauvignon Blanc 2006 24.00
Classic Marlborough Sauvignon, intense gooseberry fruit and acidity
59. Daniel Schuster, Petrie Vineyard Chardonnay 2001 33.00
From ultra low cropping vines, a tightly focused wine with firm acidity woven through lemony minerally flavours which show excellent intensity

New World - Red

- | | | |
|-----|---|-------|
